

Peer Plata Pitch Deck

Introduction to the solution for question regarding funding the next wave of Web 3.0 Healthcare Startups in United Arab Emirates.

Problem Statement

Visionary leaders are struggling with launching healthcare start-ups in the United Arab Emirates because of capital among other issues. Capital being the main issue slowing down innovation, competition and as such high quality service delivery to patients. Healthcare startups face a huge capital burden before they can launch due to the many regulations in the sensitive niche.

Solution Overview

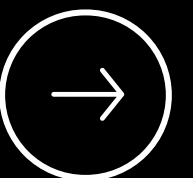

A subscription-based funding system connecting startups with sponsors for seed funding through peer contributions.

* How It Works: Sponsors contribute annual seeds to startups they believe have the talent and leadership to achieve mission, until startup funding goals are reached, receiving equity equivalent to their contribution. Upon completion of funding, Visionary and their team are ready to launch.

Market Opportunity

Patients are increasingly seeking convenient and accessible healthcare solutions, such as online consultations and remote monitoring. This shift in consumer behavior presents a lucrative opportunity for investors

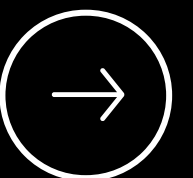

Key Features of Peer Plata

1. Subscription-Based Model: Flexible funding for visionaries and sponsors. *

2. Peer Funding: Community involvement in local healthcare innovation. *

3. Equity for Contributions: Sponsors gain a tangible stake in startups.

Business Model

1. Subscription fees from startups seeking funding.

* 2. Administrative fees on funds raised through the platform.

Market Strategy

Focus on digital marketing, partnerships with health care influencers, and collaborations with eco-friendly brands.

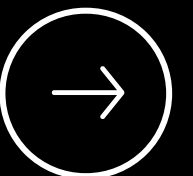

Competitive Analysis

Comparison with competitors like Kickstarter our subscription model fosters annual funding from investors ensuring a steady growth in capital for visionaries and faster returns from investments from investors. The investors invest in the talent of the team and a thriving economy which the company specialises in.

Financial Projections

Over the next five years, we anticipate a steady increase in our user base, driven by aggressive marketing and strategic partnerships.

Contact Information

hello@peerplata.com – www.peerplata.com